

Just Because

Just because I am changing doesn't mean the world is changing to accept me

Just because I have hope doesn't mean my dreams are free

Just because I struggle doesn't mean I want your pity

Just because I need a friend more than I need an enemy

Just because I am a seeker doesn't mean I am lost

Just because I have felt love and given love without cost

Just because I am weak doesn't mean I am not strong

Just because many times my spirit has been broken but my heart still has a beautiful song
